Fair"

Dear Yves,

Allow me the opportunity to share with on behalf of our entire organization our complete satisfaction with the caliber of your performances September 2 through 7, 2009 at the 151st Paris Fair.

The standing room only – capacity crowds for each & every one of the 12 performances serves as undisputable evidence of just how much our guests enjoyed the shows. We received a good many questions leading up to the fair from interested guests asking, "Who and what are the 'High Flying Fools High Divers'?", to which we responded, "We're not exactly sure but they come highly, highly recommended from a number of the best fairs and festivals around the world.". NO ONE WAS DISSAPOINTED!

In fact, I had numerous guests indicate they came to The Paris Fair to see another event/show and after seeing yours were planning to come back the next day to see yours again. One such guest said to me, "Russ, I have been bringing my family to this wonderful fair for over 30 years and this high dive show is the best show ever brought to Paris Fair." That is saying quite a bit when you consider we have won many awards for the caliber of our entertainment hosting some of the biggest names in entertainment on our stages.

Beyond the shows Yves, you and your staff were true professionals and a pleasure to work with. You were never a moment late, well equipped, polite, clean and sensitive to the numerous other shows, events and parties using our facilities. Most important to us as organizers you delivered exactly what you said you would when you said you would – you were dependable. That is of utmost importance when dealing with over 125 performances on 7 separate stages over just 5 days.

I do not hesitate for a moment – not a second – in requesting you join us for our 2010 event. Likewise, should another event be considering your production but perhaps just a bit unsure of the value you would bring (just as we were last year) – please have them contact me.

Congratulations Yves on producing such a world class caliber show that so, so many enjoy and thank you for your commitment to professionalism and showmanship.

Merci Beaucoup Mon Ami,

Sincerely,

Russell Press
